Reflection

Our game is a turtle moving wherever the mouse is going and it is also changing color as it moves. The turtle is also making a trail as it moves. It was a bit difficult making the code to make the turtle move but it was fine.
I learned about all the functions in pygame zero and how to make a repository in GitHub. I used communication skills and creative thinking skills to make the game.